DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claim 8 provides for the use of compounds of the formula I, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

2. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claim is vague because the claim language "at least claim1" should be changed to -- claim 1--.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1756

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-2, 4 and 6-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Tarumi et al. (US 2002/0030180).

The reference discloses a liquid-crystalline medium comprising polar compounds of positive dielectric anisotropy and liquid-crystal compound comprising a derivative of formula I. The reference compound has extended nematic phase range, the ability to switch at extremely low temperatures and increased resistance to ultraviolet radiation. The reference further teaches that a method of generating an electro-optical effect comprising applying a voltage to a liquid crystal display containing a liquid-crystalline medium.

The reference formula I is shown on col. 3. The method of preparing the compound containing a cyclobutane and a bridging group CF_2O is shown in Scheme 1

(see $\text{A}^2 =$  and $\text{Z}^2 = -\text{CF}_2\text{O}-$). The reference anticipates the claimed invention. If not anticipated because the present compounds are not exemplified, it would have been obvious to those skilled in the art to modify the starting materials to arrive at the claimed invention. See compounds of I1f and I1h on col. 5, which A^2 is

Double Patenting

Art Unit: 1756

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-2, 4 and 6-12 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 9-10, 20, 23, 28 and 31 of U.S. Patent No. 6,716,491. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the parts of the claimed invention are the same as US '491.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 3 and 5 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
